Motion by Hass, seconded by Butler, and an oral vote of 4 ayes to approve that the monthly bills had been audited for payment.

Supervisor Hammond opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance. The first item on the agenda was the Public Hearing on the 2024 Preliminary Budget and it was opened at 7 p.m; the Affidavit of Publication was available for review. Supervisor Hammond asked if there were any comments on the Preliminary Budget. D. Jacangelo addressed the 2024 Town Budget and also said that “a Workshop is a Workshop” and described the overall budget “process”. He said that the Proposed 2024 budget did not contain past actual results and he thought that it should. He also asked if Town interest receipts were contained in the proposed budget and asked about the Water Assistant Manager line item in the proposed budget.

The Affidavit of Public Hearing is available in the Town Clerk’s office.

L. King addressed the Town Board and read a letter which Councilman Wohlleber had asked that he read to the group since he was unable to attend the meeting. In the letter Councilman Wohlleber proposed the use of “virtual meetings” for the Town Board meetings so that the residents could be involved, even if not physically present. Councilman’s Wohlleber full letter is available at the Town Clerk’s office.

Several residents, including C. Sargent, J. Batista and S. Sauer voiced their concerns to the Board regarding the need for a Decorum Bill. C. Sargent stated she and her family attended the June and September Town Board meetings and experienced discouraging remarks from the Board.

S. Valente, Town resident addressed Supervisor Hammond, he said that Supervisor Hammond did a fine job and wanted to thank him for all his time and for his service to the Town.
